

Buffalo Bill Cody

As played by
Brian Belge

Buffalo Bill's Wild West

Rip-roaring interactive theatre

The Premise The year is 1883. Buffalo Bill Cody is recruiting performers for his new Wild West Show! Rumors are flying that many unknowns will be looking to get into show. Others, no doubt, are simply looking to bask in the limelight of Buffalo Bill's world-famous persona.

The Performer Brian Belge, a professional actor, portrays Buffalo Bill, performing exciting scenarios, interacting with guests and providing thrilling entertainment while dressed in exquisite period clothing.

The Trunke Shows Trunke shows are a highly regarded staple of Brian Belge's interactive experiences and are the source of tremendous humor and fun! Audience members are given costume pieces on the spur of the moment, becoming stars of the show along with the actors.

Trunke shows may include:

- ♣ An Old-fashioned Melodrama
- ♣ A Snake Oil Medicine Show
- ♣ A School for Cowpokes and Floozies
- ♣ Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show Auditions
- ♣ Campfire Tales of Buffalo Bill

Brian Belge Responsibilities Rehearsals; scripts; costumes; props; transportation; consulting on menu, publicity copy, and décor.

Client Requirements A performance space with appropriate décor; sufficient lighting and seating; one room of overnight lodging; a credit in all publicity materials; complimentary admissions.

From: Brian O'Sullivan
To: Brian Belge
Subject: Re: Pack902/Buffalo Bill
Date: Monday, February 28, 2005

Hi Brian,

Thanks for another great performance!

You received numerous compliments from the parents. And you might find it interesting that none of the Cubs connected the dots between Buffalo Bill & Sir Marshall Laww, and while a few adults said you looked familiar, only a few had deduced you were one-in-the-same.

Hope the antsy cowpokes weren't too disruptive... there's always one or two in a group of 30, and you handled 'em quite well! "There's some things folk just can't compete with" is one line I'll remember for a long time :-)

I'm keeping your web-site bookmarked for future reference. Perhaps Columbus could pay us a visit at a future event, or in a few years we may recycle the Renaissance theme again. Keep us posted if you add any other characters to your repertoire!

Best regards,
Brian O'Sullivan

“We have received tremendous positive feedback for featuring these special shows.”
Ed Mayotte, President & General Manager, Skytop Lodge, Skytop, PA

The Old Fashioned Melodrama

BUFFALO BILL'S

NEW YEAR'S HOOTENANNY!

Celebrate the New Year in the Old West!
Buffalo Bill Cody's one man show brings the American Wild West to rip-roarin' life and puts the crowd smack dab in the middle of
U.S. history, literature and drama.

SCHOOL FOR COWPOKES

Totally Interactive Theater...

Join in a Mock Buffalo Roundup. Ride on the Pony Express. Learn how to swagger, tip your hat and spit-on-the-sly in the School for Cowpokes. Cheer for the hero and hiss at the villain in an Old Fashioned Melodrama.
...itsa Hootenanny!

AN OLD FASHIONED MELODRAMA

PRAIRIE GAMES & PASTIMES

Brian Belge

717.575.2907

www.brianbelge.com

bribelge@ptd.net

TALES OF THE WILD WEST

Kick up your heels...

WITH THE PROFESSIONAL CAST OF HIT PRODUCTIONS IN THE WORLD PREMIERE OF

Four fun-filled weekends!
Beginning
March 6, '98

Skytop's

WILD WEST!

Don't delay-
Reserve Today!
1-800-345-7759
It's toll free!

Country Weekends

Interact one-on-one with
BUFFALO BILL CODY, ANNIE OAKLEY & Co.

Enjoy an old-fashioned
MEDICINE SHOW, MELODRAMA, HAYRIDE & BARN DANCE

Participate in
A SHOOTING CONTEST & COUNTRY LINE DANCING

Live!
Foot Stompin'
Country Music!
YEE-HAW!

Weekend packages for two start at $310 for a one-night stay or $500 for the two-night Full American Plan.

One Skytop, Skytop, PA 18357-1099